

Announcement

Subject: Quality Policy

To be a framework and guideline for the operation and development of the quality management system of all units in the company to be efficient and consistent with the company's policies and goals.

The company would like to announce the quality policy, vision and mission for all employees at all levels to be aware of and set as guidelines for operations, planning for improvement and development in their related departments and to adhere to them in general as follows:

"We are committed to become outstanding services through most advanced technologies, with continuous processes, on time delivery of products, friendly environment policy for the customer' most satisfaction"

Effective from 1 March 2019 onwards

Announced on 1 March 2019

Signed

Managing Director